

Korea-China Meeting to Develop Ways of Promoting Mutual

• Title : Cooperation for the Domestic Waste Water and Waste Material
Treatment

• Category : Korea Environmental Industry & Technology Institute • Country : China

• Source : Korea Environmental Industry & Technology Institute • URL : <http://www.keiti.re.kr>

• Summary

1. Outline

○ Purpose

- Establish an operation system of the center to help the domestic environmental businesses to advance into the Chinese environment market.
- Involve China's Ministry of Construction to develop ways of promoting cooperation for the success of the project regarding the treatment of domestic waste water and separate garbage collection in China and provide an opportunity to disseminate successful cases.

○ Period and place: Dec. 21 2011 (Wednesday) through Jan. 16 2012 (Monday)/China

○ Participants: Researcher Jang Won-seok

2. Contents

① Lay the foundation for operating Korea & China Environmental Business Cooperation Center and develop collaborative projects.

○ Period: Dec. 21 2011 (Thursday) through Jan. 16 2012 (Monday)

○ Contents

- Develop ways to operate China's environmental business cooperation center for 2012 and establish a business plan.
 - Prepare a 2011 budget executed.
 - Develop a collaborative business project and discover buyers.
 - Establish a cooperation system with China's relevant environmental agencies in China.
 - Introduce a training course for local employees.
 - Contact registered agencies and arrange them to take needed procedures.
-

② Korea-China meeting to develop ways of promoting cooperation for the success of the project regarding the treatment of domestic waste water and waste material.

- Date: Dec. 26 2011 (Monday)
 - Place: Conference room of Urban Construction Center in Peking, China

 - Participants
 - Korea: Researcher Chang Won-seok at the Korea Environmental Industry & Technology Institute
 - China: Chief Officer Yang Guing-eui at China's Ministry of Construction, Chief Officer Ryu Jeonh-ho at China's Urban Construction Center

 - Contents
 - The KEITI agreed to sign a MOU with China's Urban Construction Center in line with the MOU signed by the two countries
 - The parties concerned agreed to regularize a collaborative forum and consultations to promote bilateral cooperation for the success of the waste treatment project.
-